

Certificate of Insurance - Helvetia general and professional liability insurance
Policy number 4.001.209.731 - (949506/1)

Helvetia Swiss Insurance Company Ltd confirms that it provides insurance cover to the policyholder named below as part of the Standard Terms of Insurance and the provisions agreed in the policy for its public, product and professional liability insurance. The insurance relates to claims made against the policyholder on the basis of Swiss or international liability provisions owing to

- Protect the investments made by clients in case of unexpected events such as market downturns, economic instability, or company insolvency
- safeguard the company's brand reputation against risks such as defamation, intellectual property infringement
- Coverage to mitigate financial losses caused by unexpected events that disrupt normal business operations, such as natural disasters, cyber-attacks, or supply chain disruptions.
- Errors and Omissions Insurance, this coverage protects against claims of negligence or failure to perform professional duties, which could arise from providing investment advice or managing client portfolios
- insurance against cyber threats such as data breaches, hacking, or malware attacks would be crucial to protect sensitive client information and maintain trust.

Policyholder:

Pacific World Trade LTD.

Persons insured:

Members of Pacific World Trade LTD.

Business description:

Integrates clients into its investor community using advanced technology, fostering financial stability and facilitating profitable investments. Beyond traditional trading, it serves as a developmental tool, offering partners access to the company's brand, established business algorithms, and expert support for maximizing potential

Geographical scope:

worldwide

Policy period:

01.01.2023 - 01.01.2033